2006 Scientific Output

If you want to download PDF files of these papers, please contact the Secretariat. If you have already received access information, click here to download the PDFs.

At the end of 2006 there were 24 PhD holding members and 70 researchers and post-graduation students working at the Institute, which in that year were responsible for the publication of 68 articles in peer-reviewed journals (15 other were in press), 7 chapters of internationally edited books, and 6 PhD and 6 MSc theses. Additionally, 72 communications were presented in international scientific conferences, 4 articles were published in national journals, one issue of an international journal was edited, and 3 patents were granted to, or applied for, by members of IPC.

Book Chapters

2. BÁRTOLO P. J. Rapid Prototyping and Tooling at Portugal. In Wholers Report 2006,

International Publications in Peer-reviewed Journals

